

SAMUEL W. ARENBERG

Curriculum vitae

PhD Candidate, Economics
The University of Texas at Austin

Email: samuel.arenberg@utexas.edu
Web: samuelarenberg.com

Education

The University of Texas at Austin	PhD, Economics	2022 (Expected)
The London School of Economics	MSc, Economics	2014
George Washington University	BS, Economics	2009

Teaching

Introduction to Econometrics	2021–Present
Development and Population Economics	2020
Labor Economics	2019
Education Economics	2018
Health economics	2016–17

Experience

Prof. David Chan	Stanford University	2015–16
Prof. Rohini Pande	Harvard University	2015
Prof. Steve Machin	The London School of Economics	2014
Prof. Lori Beaman	Northwestern University	2011–12

Research

Working papers

1. The Impact of Youth Medicaid Eligibility on Adult Incarceration
with Seth Neller and Sam Stripling
Revisions requested at American Economic Journal: Applied Economics
Awarded IPUMS Best Graduate Student Research using Health Surveys
2. Geographic Dispersion in Life Expectancy in the United States: The Role of Health-selective Migration
FSRDC Project UT-2603

Works in progress

1. The Later-life Impacts of Early-Life Lead Exposure: Evidence from Changes in Vehicle Emission Standards in the United States
with Seth Neller
FSRDC Project UT-2272
2. Ashes to Ashes: The Lifelong Consequences of Early-life Exposure to Wildfires
with Seth Neller
FSRDC Project UT-2272
3. The Impact of Medicare Eligibility on Mortality
with Sam Stripling
FSRDC Project UT-2603